NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

DATE: June 19, 2017
SUBJECT: Station 31 Sends Best Wishes to Retiring Principal

Retiring Fisher Middle School Principal Barb Brower receives congratulations and best wishes from Ewing's Prospect Heights Fire Company on her last days of school. Principal Brower has been at Fisher Middle School for 31 years beginning right after graduation from West Chester State College. She has been principal the last 12 years. Also noteworthy is that she attended Fisher when it also included an elementary school (K-5) and again as a junior high school (8-9) prior to graduation from Ewing High School in 1982. The Prospect Heights Fire Company wishes her a happy retirement!
